"FUN"?

Educational studies show that even the slowest readers are more attracted to compact, colorful paperbacks than to more formidable looking cloth bound books.

PERMA-BOUNDS retain all of the features of paperbacks which youngsters like, and add a new dimension which you will like... durability.

A sparkling clear laminated plastic coating enhances and protects the artwork from soiling. Binders boards keep covers rock-hard and free from dog-eared corners. A special new adhesive locks pages into a resilient binding, so they cannot fall out.

The durability of PERMA-BOUNDS will save you precious time and money. You will eliminate the costly replacing of paperbacks which wear out so quickly.

Choose from our catalog of over 4000 PERMA-BOUND paperback titles especially selected for schools and libraries — or let us rebind the old or new paperbacks now in your possession. Either way, PERMA-BOUNDS will put "fun" into your reading programs.

PERMA-BOUNDS are eligible for purchase with Federal funds under Titles I, II, III.

TEACHERS AND LIBRARIANS LIKE PAPERBACKS

Teachers and librarians like paperbacks because they induce teen-agers to read — paperbacks have psychological appeal for teen-agers. Paperbacks give the teacher a new flexibility in assigning reading material to students of different abilities and skills.

TEEN-AGERS LIKE PAPERBACKS

Outstanding students are assigned more paperbacks than slower readers. No longer are teachers and students chained to one anthology, one reading pace. Teen-agers prefer paperbacks because of compact size, light weight, ease of handling, and attractive artwork on covers.
